I've used glass mouse pads forever and I'm not replacing my mouse feet all the time. I don't understand this even though it seems universally accepted. Always keep mine clean and I don't use lots of pressure so idk. The two negatives in general tend to be the noise and stopping power, but the razer pad is actually pretty quiet for a glass pad.

I haven't seen much reviews about Photovoltaic glass mousepads around even in the store I bought it in(Shopee). However this is my very first glasspad so I can't say anything about ...

Glass mouse pads offer truly unparalleled speed and overall performance, while maintaining their quickness for an incredibly long time. Aside from this, our SP-004 glass pad uses a unique etching process that creates a layer onto the surface, to not only provide perfect tracking information for your mouse's sensor, but to also provide extreme glide precision and ...

The only way to use any glass mousepad, any glass mousepad, is if you have buckets of mouse feet (still need to change biweekly despite the best effort at cleaning), or use cloth mouse feet (people aren't smart enough to invent them yet).
